Happy October! It is hard to believe that the first full month of school has ended. I hope everyone has adjusted to the schedule and has their eyes open for issues that other teachers might have missed.

October is Dyslexia Awareness Month! Please do whatever you can to spread the word. Some ideas are putting books about dyslexia in the teacher's break room, putting up a bulletin board for all to see or just flooding your social media pages with dyslexia information. Those are just a few ideas. You are more than welcome to share your ideas with me too.

IDAWB is doing a couple of things. First is the Awareness Party on October 1st in Cottage Grove WI. The flyer is attached as well. Another thing we are doing is a Double Good Popcorn Fundraiser from October 21st through the 25th. More details will come when the details are sorted out.

Have a great Dyslexia Awareness Month!
